

PAUL SANDERSON, FINE ART PHOTOGRAPHY

Paul Sanderson was born in 1954 in Toronto, Canada. He began photographing after receiving his law degree in 1981. He has studied photography at Ryerson Polytechnic University with Henry Gordillo and Peter Lindsay. He is an arts and entertainment lawyer in private practice, a member of the Scarborough Arts Council and the Rail's End Gallery in Haliburton, Ontario. He has participated in Foto Fest and Contact.

I. ARTISTIC STATEMENT:

His photographs attempt to reveal what most of us overlook in everyday life. They are conceived in silence-intuitive and spontaneous. Photography is a means for him to explore the unseen but universal in the familiar, pursue personal growth and self knowledge and create exceptional images.

II. SOLO AND GROUP EXHIBITIONS:

2010	Cannes, France - Solo Exhibition of Medium Format Photography, Dylan Ellis Gallery, Toronto
2004	Contact Group Show at Scarborough Arts Council and Osgoode Hall
2002, 2001, 1999, 1998, 1997	Scarborough Consillium Annual Show
2002, 1999	Elevator Photo Gallery
2001	Old Country House, The Remarkable Bean
2000, 1997	The Rail's End Gallery
1999, 1997	The Scarborough Arts Council Gallery
1999, 1996	The Toronto Outdoor Art Show
1998	The Juten Gallery Annex
1998, 1995	The Scarborough Civic Centre
1997	The Ethel Curry Art Gallery
1996	8 Elm Photo
1995	Leslie M. Frost Natural Resources Centre
1995	The Gallery, Scarborough Campus, University of Toronto
1994	Express Café

III. PUBLICATIONS

2005	The Globe & Mail – Neon Photos featured in the Architourist by Dave Leblanc
2000 Editions	Cover Photo: "Shanghai Noodle Killing" by Ted Plantos, Published by Seraphim
1995	"Toronto By Lens", The Globe & Mail
1994	White Wall Review Literary and Arts journal, Ryerson Polytechnical University

IV. AWARDS:

2001	Honourable Mention Scarborough Consillium Show
1997	Award of Excellence Scarborough Consillium Show
1984	Honourable Mention The Toronto Star Photo Contest

V. GALLERY REPRESENTATION:

2001	Lensfire
1999	The Liss Gallery, Toronto, Ontario
1999	Op Photo Gallery, Toronto, Ontario
1997	The Ethel Curry Art Gallery, Haliburton, Ontario

VI COLLECTIONS:

BMG Music Canada
The Bay
John Cleary
Numerous private patrons